The Middle School Principal will be responsible for the daily operation of the Middle School and work closely with administration, faculty, and staff to develop the curriculum, build the master schedule, maintain student discipline, ensure appropriate communication with parents, oversee academic programs and ceremonies, and coordinate high school placement activities. The Principal will lead the division by building and maintaining a high degree of morale in students and teachers alike and partnering with parents to ensure student success. He or she will be an ardent supporter of Cornerstone publicly and an honest critic privately. Working closely with the Director of Admissions, the Principal will meet with prospective Middle School parents, assist in admissions tours, evaluate applicants, and coordinate new student orientation. The Principal will work with the Headmaster on the hiring and retention of faculty, and will keep the Headmaster fully informed of Middle School student issues and other relevant matters pertaining to the division. In maintaining a culture of daily improvement, the Middle School Principal will evaluate instruction and classroom management and ensure that the division employs innovative teaching methods and best practices. As a school leader, the Principal will also lead teachers and students in pursuit of a deeper understanding of Christ's ministry and how that affects their teaching and learning.

The ideal candidate will have a master's degree, preferably in education or counseling, and will be an experienced educator who can teach a class as time allows. He or she will be a collaborative visionary with strong interpersonal, communication, and leadership skills. In addition, this person must be a faithful servant leader with a strong, clear Christian testimony, a mature, godly spirit, and a thorough understanding of Scripture.
