High School Principal
Grace Community School
Tyler, Texas

gracetyler.org

Southern Teachers is assisting Grace Community School (GCS) as it seeks a highly-motivated, experienced, spiritually mature High School Principal to lead the division to new levels of academic excellence. The Principal will foster and strengthen the school's academic profile, oversee the spiritual formation and support of students, steward school resources, and shepherd faculty, families, and students in an atmosphere of Christian teaching and learning. This position will report to the Head of School and serve on the leadership team.

The High School Principal will collaborate with a gifted faculty to design and oversee the development of a Christ-centered, academically excellent curriculum; incorporate technology in the classroom in innovative ways; and support faculty in technology integration. He or she will establish and maintain strong personal relationships with faculty, students, and family members; further the thriving Christian community spirit of the school; and support constituents through empowerment, encouragement, and love. The Principal will also create and sustain an environment of mentoring, discipling, and equipping students through student organizations, service learning, spiritual formation disciplines, co-curricular teams, and other aspects of student life.

The ideal candidate will have a master's degree in education or a related field and at least three years of leadership experience in a Christian educational institution. He or she will be a disciple of Jesus Christ who leads through a powerful Christian witness, a humble spirit, and a heart guided by prayer; have a clearly articulated and demonstrated biblical philosophy of education; and be a creative problem solver who is able to execute on well-conceived plans.

Established in 1973, Grace Community School (GCS) serves nearly 1000 students on two campuses in grades junior kindergarten through twelve, striving to assist Christian families in educating, equipping, and encouraging their children to influence the world for Christ. Over the past decade, GCS has strengthened its High School academic program to more effectively prepare its students for college and for God's calling upon their lives. Due to continuous growth and improvement the High School was recently recognized as a Blue Ribbon school. The city of Tyler is a thriving regional hub located in the piney woods of East Texas, featuring vibrant arts and religious cultures.
