Southern Teachers is assisting Fort Bend Christian Academy (FBCA) as it seeks a dynamic, personable Head of Upper School who will support the school's faith-driven mission while guiding the school towards the future. The Head of Upper School will serve on the senior administrative team and report to the Head of School.

The Head of Upper School will provide leadership in curriculum and instruction for the division; monitor relevant educational and academic data to inform decisions in these areas; work collaboratively with and supervise all division faculty and staff; manage divisional faculty evaluations; and direct professional-growth goals. He or she will inculcate a positive school culture based on the school's mission and philosophy; establish and maintain supportive relationships with constituents of the Upper School including students, families, faculty, and staff; and promote spiritual growth through weekly chapels and special programs.

The ideal candidate will have an advanced degree and experience in independent school education, preferably as a division head. He or she will have excellent communication skills, both oral and written; a willingness to collaborate with other administrators and faculty to further the school's mission; a joyful, kind, and passionate devotion to serving diverse students and parents; and a critical and strategic nature of thought. The ideal candidate will also be a disciple of Christ who regularly participates in worship at a Christian church.

Established in 1987, Fort Bend Christian Academy (FBCA) enrolls over 800 students in grades prekindergarten through twelve. The school is located in Sugar Land, a large suburb twenty miles southwest of downtown Houston. The school is committed to balancing its Christian mission—to glorify God through excellence in college preparatory Christian education—with a challenging College Board based academic program. FBCA students enjoy competitive sports offerings and outstanding fine and performing arts programs at a truly comprehensive Christian independent school. Typically, all graduates attend colleges and universities.
