Principal of Lower Primary School
Atlanta International School
Atlanta, Georgia

aischool.org

Southern Teachers is assisting Atlanta International School as it seeks a Principal of Lower Primary School to provide educational leadership and management for grades five-year-old kindergarten through two. Reporting to the Head of Primary School, the Principal will be a highly qualified educator capable of facilitating a community learning environment and International Baccalaureate (IB) learning outcomes for the school's Lower Primary School students.

The Principal of the Lower Primary School effectively develops, aligns, and executes a plan of action for monitoring the curriculum and implementing the instructional and assessment strategies that result in student progress consistent with the school's mission and goals. This person develops and nurtures an internationally minded, balanced, academically rigorous, positive, safe school climate and promotes clear expectations of mutual respect, concern, and empathy for students, staff, parents, and the school community. She or he participates in the selection, orientation, assignment, development, evaluation, and retention of quality instructional and support personnel. The Principal effectively communicates and collaborates with stakeholders to promote understanding, support, and continuous improvement of the school's programs and services aligned with the school's mission.

The ideal candidate for this position will have a master's degree and extensive experience as an effective school leader with primary curriculum and programs; successful teaching experience in International Baccalaureate Primary Years Programme (IBPYP) or inquiry/trans-disciplinary programs, preferably in an international school; proficiency in a second language; and excellent technology skills. This Primary School leadership position requires an extraordinary educational leader, one with advanced written and verbal communication skills and a highly developed level of interpersonal empathy. The successful candidate will be able to navigate complex cultures and demonstrate an intercultural mindset.

Atlanta International School (AIS) offers the International Baccalaureate curriculum to more than 1,150 U.S. and international students, in grades three-year-old kindergarten through twelve. AIS's rigorous academic program, with world-class standards in language acquisition and an open-minded, intercultural environment, prepares students to succeed in a globally connected world. The school is accredited by SACS (AdvancEd), the Council of International Schools (CIS), and the IB.
