Southern Teachers is assisting St. Mark's Cathedral School as it seeks a hands-on, spirited Middle School Director who will introduce innovative ideas and work collaboratively with faculty. Reporting to the Head of School, the Director will be responsible for the daily operations and schedule of the division, which consists of grades six through eight.

The Middle School Director will evaluate and implement the division's curriculum; coordinate standardized testing and acquisition of curricular materials; and oversee student discipline and behavior. He or she will provide necessary support, administrative assistance, and guidance to Middle School teachers and assist the Head of School in the evaluation and hiring of Middle School faculty. In addition, the Director will coordinate with other division heads and the Head of School in the planning of special events and schedules for the Middle School and will assist with admissions tours and assessments for students entering the division.

The ideal candidate will have an advanced degree and significant teaching and/or administrative experience in a middle school setting.

Established in 1953, St. Mark's Cathedral School is an Episcopal school serving approximately 350 students from preschool 2 through grade eight. Connected to St. Mark's Cathedral, the school is an extension of the church's mission – "to love and serve the world for Christ." St. Mark's seeks to help its students, regardless of religious affiliation, realize their potential and become self-confident educationally, socially, and spiritually. The school's strong curriculum, coupled with small class sizes and age-appropriate worship and religion classes for all students, provides a nurturing environment for each student's heart and mind.

To apply, please complete the online Application to become a Southern Teachers Candidate and submit a cover letter explaining your interest in and qualifications for this position, which begins in July 2019.
