Southern Teachers is assisting Sheridan Hills Christian School with its search for a Lower School Principal to lead the division in developing students who will influence future generations for Jesus Christ. The Principal reports to the Headmaster, serves on the administrative team, and oversees the Lower School’s teachers, Assistant Principal, and Aftercare Director.

The Lower School includes approximately 200 students in kindergarten through grade six. The Lower School Principal leads the faculty in creating and maintaining a positive and safe learning environment; champions the school’s Classical Christian Education model and philosophy; ensures that the curriculum remains focused on faith formation and development; and oversees all aspects of the division’s daily operations. The Principal hires, supports, develops, and evaluates teachers and staff; provides them with ongoing opportunities for professional development; and promotes a culture of excellence, teamwork, and faithful service. He or she must ensure that educational programs and learning experiences incorporate a biblical worldview that encourages students to reach their full potential in Christ. The Principal also seeks ways to improve how the school presents itself to the community from a Christian perspective. Always, he or she approaches this leadership role with the best interests of students and parents clearly in mind.

The ideal candidate will be a devoted follower of Christ who accepts and agrees with the school’s statement of faith and who articulates a well-developed philosophy of early childhood education consistent with the school’s overall pedagogical approach. He or she will have an advanced degree, at least three years of experience in a leadership role preferably at a Christian school, and at least five years of classroom experience. The Principal must be an excellent communicator adept at balancing student and parent relationships, maintaining high academic standards, and celebrating a diverse and multicultural community. He or she will be a counselor at heart, with a gentle, firm, loving manner.
