Southern Teachers is assisting Trinity School of Texas in the search for its next Head of School. Trinity was established in 1957 as the parish school of Trinity Episcopal Church of Longview. In the Anglican tradition, Trinity challenges and motivates students in an academically and spiritually stimulating environment to become imaginative, critical thinkers and people dedicated to others. The new Head of School will have the opportunity to lead outstanding faculty and staff as they combine a strong academic tradition with a commitment to innovation.

Trinity School of Texas successfully prepares students for college and beyond in a joyful, spiritual environment. Our graduates will attain academic excellence, embrace diversity, demonstrate intellectual curiosity, appreciate the arts, value physical well-being, serve their community, and exemplify Christian living.

Trinity School of Texas offers a challenging and supportive academic program to students of all ages. Children as young as two years old discover the joy of learning in the Early Childhood Program. The Upper School college preparatory program sees a 100% college acceptance rate, with students attaining $3.2 million in scholarships received for the 2019-2020 school year. The school’s international program currently welcomes students from six different countries.

Trinity School of Texas also prepares students for life beyond the classroom. All students participate in age-appropriate community service projects that develop compassion, a lifelong commitment of service to others, and an appreciation for diverse backgrounds. An exciting athletics program promotes the school’s core values: accountability, respect, integrity, academic achievement, community service, fairness, diversity and sportsmanship.

Trinity School of Texas is an Episcopal, coeducational, day school serving almost 300 students in prekindergarten through grade twelve.
