Southern Teachers is assisting The Epstein School with its search for a Curriculum Coordinator to be primarily responsible for curriculum standards, practice, and process alignment for the school’s general studies program across all academic divisions.

The Curriculum Coordinator collaborates with principals, teachers, and middle school department heads to ensure curriculum alignment from early childhood through eighth grade. He or she supports pacing to ensure that learning standards are consistently reached; maintains and communicates curricular expectations and mapping; helps faculty design, implement, and differentiate engaging lessons to meet the needs of diverse learners; and assesses student performance using a variety of educational instruments. The Curriculum Coordinator cooperates with the Accounting Department on Title Funds planning, utilization, and resource distribution; participates in all team and department meetings; coordinates and presents professional development sessions; and maintains a positive, collaborative environment across departments and grade levels.

The ideal candidate is an experienced educator and an excellent communicator who fully understands research-based academics and teaching methodologies, exhibits a growth mindset, and seeks constant improvement through self-reflection, constructive feedback, and professional development. Candidates with advanced degrees and experience with Singapore Math and Writers & Readers Workshop are preferred.

The Epstein School is an independent Jewish day school serving 450 students in grades preschool through eight. At Epstein, students experience an exceptional education led by specialized STEAM and Hebrew language programs. The school prepares confident learners grounded in their unique Jewish identities and committed to serving as leaders in local and global communities. Epstein offers integrated, dual-language learning that cultivates lifelong skills, inspires Jewish identity, and nurtures curiosity, critical thinking, and creativity.
