Southern Teachers is assisting Hebrew Academy with its search for a Dean of Students. Reporting to the High School Principal, the Dean of Students collaborates with the administrative team to engage all stakeholders in providing programs and services that support students’ academic achievement, personal, and social development.

Working with counselors and tutors, the Dean establishes development plans for students showing signs of academic and behavioral struggles. The Dean implements strategies to motivate and inspire student success, promote school spirit and values, and help students become responsible citizens. He or she will organize educational and cultural projects and explain school rules and policies to students. An active member of the pedagogical council, internal rules committee, and health and citizenship committee, the Dean will maintain student files regarding discipline and health and establish constructive dialogue with students’ parents and legal guardians.

Candidates should have at least five years of teaching experience. The ideal candidate will hold an advanced degree, have excellent oral and written communication skills, and be able to interact effectively with a variety of audiences and individuals. He or she will have experience making effective presentations and interpreting and analyzing data and will be able to administer board policy, administrative procedures, and state law.

Established in 1947, Hebrew Academy is the oldest Modern Orthodox Jewish Day School south of Baltimore. Serving over 600 students in pre-kindergarten through twelfth grade, Hebrew Academy has a long history of student success and a strong reputation as a pillar of the Miami Beach community. We are proud to have first, second, third, and now fourth generation families in our school corridors. This depth of history creates a rich and diverse family culture that is warm and inviting.

To apply, please complete the online Application to become a Southern Teachers Candidate and submit a cover letter explaining your interest in and qualifications for this position, which begins in July 2022.
