Southern Teachers is assisting The Lovett School with its search for an exceptional educator to join the Director and the Assistant Director in supervising varsity programs and ensuring department-specific implementation of Lovett’s definition of whole-child education. The Associate Director acts as an extension of the Athletic Director’s office and addresses sport-related issues that may require the Director’s attention.

The Associate Director tracks student-athlete participation, assists in evaluating and providing feedback to coaches of all teams at all levels, and oversees schedules for practices, competitions, and off-seasons/holidays. He or she works with Lionbackers and team parents to coordinate special events and serves as liaison with the college counseling department to coordinate recruitment meetings with students and organize informational seminars for parents about the recruiting process. The Associate AD collaborates with the Assistant AD and varsity coaches to inventory all sports equipment, works cross-divisionally to represent athletics department interests in creating the master calendar, maintains playbooks for all Athletics Department tasks; assists in game management, operations, setup, and breakdown; coordinates student service initiatives and the Student-Athlete Advisory Board (SAAB); and coaches one season each year.

Candidates must have extensive coaching, administrative, and leadership experience in high school athletics and keen understanding of high school athletics in Georgia. They must be excellent communicators with independent-school stakeholders, and they must love working with adolescents and engaging them as whole students, balancing care and compassion with challenge and accountability. The Associate Director must be committed to developing self-awareness, cultural competence, and emotional intelligence and have a strong desire to work in a collaborative learning community and participate in ongoing professional development. He or she must be proficient with Google Suite applications and exhibit professionalism, a growth mindset, and a personal philosophy that embraces The Lovett School’s mission and core values.

The Lovett School, founded in 1926, is Atlanta’s school of choice for families who value its multi-faceted approach to educate the whole child—where intellectual rigor, social-emotional learning, and character development are purposefully cultivated and inextricably linked. The school inspires its 1,640 students, grades kindergarten through grade twelve, to challenge themselves in the classroom, on the stage, in the studio, on the playing field, and in the community. More than 6,000 alumni consistently note that Lovett’s liberal arts curriculum has prepared them well for their many endeavors, including Olympic competition, space exploration, and business entrepreneurship.

To apply, please complete the online Application to become a Southern Teachers Candidate and submit a cover letter explaining your interest in and qualifications for this position, which begins June 1, 2022.
