Southern Teachers is assisting in Headwaters School’s search for an Athletics Coordinator and Teacher to provide oversight, organization, and coordination for the athletics programs in middle and high school.

The Coordinator will work closely with the Middle and High School Directors and facilitate communication between teachers, administrators, students, parents, ancillary staff, and the league association to raise the profile of the athletic program. He or she will develop, organize, supervise, schedule, and evaluate the after-school athletics program and ensure that all coaching and referee positions are filled by competent coaches properly trained in all organizational and philosophical aspects of an inclusive, no-cut, team-focused athletics program. The Coordinator will manage the athletics budget, secure athletic facility rentals, and ensure the proper maintenance and security of all athletics equipment. He or she will also lead two daily physical education/movement classes in the Middle School.

Candidates must be experienced coaches who are highly organized, friendly, collaborative, and strongly committed to equity, inclusion, and belonging practices. They should have excellent oral and written communication skills, attention to detail, and an understanding of kinesiology.

Founded in 2001, Headwaters School serves more than 500 students across its three campuses in Austin, Texas. Headwaters works to promote a growth mindset, a collaborative spirit, a joyful environment, and the achievement of high expectations in all of its students in grades prekindergarten through twelve. The Headwaters community works to cultivate identity formation, foster empathy, and embrace diversity to bring more peace to the world and guides students to live authentically, think expansively, and create bravely.

To apply, please complete the online Application to become a Southern Teachers Candidate and submit a cover letter explaining your interest in and qualifications for this position, which begins in July 2022.
