Southern Teachers is assisting in Academy of the Sacred Heart’s search for a Director of Early Childhood Learning. The Academy’s youngest students, ages one to three, learn in the Early Childhood Division known as Little Hearts. Highly motivated and knowledgeable candidates are invited to apply to serve as Director of the Little Hearts program and as part of the administrative team that leads teachers and students in a joyous, Catholic, academically rigorous setting.

Candidates should hold degrees in early childhood learning and advanced degrees in education, and they should have at least three years’ experience in similar positions, ideally in a Catholic school setting. They should have an inclusive, compassionate view of early childhood education; experience with state licensing documents and procedures for this level; and the ability to lead a large team in a welcoming and professional manner.

The Academy of the Sacred Heart in New Orleans, founded in 1867, is an independent, Catholic, college-prep institution for girls offering 17 years of instruction for one-year-olds through twelfth grade. It is one of 25 schools in the Network of Sacred Heart Schools in the United States and Canada sponsored by the Religieuse du Sacré Coeur de Jesus - Religious of the Sacred Heart of Jesus (RSCJ). The Rosary and Mater campuses of the Academy of the Sacred Heart are located on St. Charles Avenue in Uptown amid beautiful grounds and buildings. Dynamic, innovative approaches and opportunities abound in this well-respected educational institution.

To apply, please complete the online Application to become a Southern Teachers Candidate and submit a cover letter explaining your interest in and qualifications for this position, which begins as soon as feasible upon hire.
