Southern Teachers is assisting Cornerstone Christian Academy in its search for a Principal to oversee and lead the Middle School. The Principal must have a heart for helping students understand Christ’s teachings and how that knowledge affects their daily lives. This understanding will undergird the continuing development of the best possible student experience. To that end, the Middle School Principal works closely with the Headmaster to develop and refine a vision for the school experience in grades 5-8 and to set priorities for areas of improvement.

The Middle School Principal supports the school and its leadership by being a passionate fan publicly and an honest critic privately. He or she encourages students to pursue biblical truth, builds up their morale, collaborates in preparing the master class schedule, and maintains academic records. The Principal oversees student discipline, follows through with correspondence and record keeping, and coordinates detention duty. He or she leads teachers in pursuing a deeper understanding of Christ’s ministry and how it guides their pedagogy; communicates clear direction, guidelines, and expectations of teachers; and encourages innovative technology in the classroom. The Principal formally evaluates middle school teachers biannually and makes recommendations to the Headmaster regarding hiring, retention, and assignment of duties.

Candidates must be experienced educators who hold advanced degrees and have a strong, clear Christian testimony. The ideal candidate will be a highly relational leader who can maximize the shared sense of inclusiveness in the Cornerstone community. He or she will have excellent interpersonal, communication, and leadership skills; a readiness to accept responsibility; a visionary disposition; a deep desire to build effective, exciting, impactful programs; and a collaborative, positive attitude.
