The Opportunity

Southern Teachers Agency is assisting Ridgecroft School in the search for its next Head of School. Originally chartered in 1968, Ridgecroft opened its doors in 1970. Since 1984, Ridgecroft has been accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, attesting to the school's high standards for its curriculum, faculty, staff, and facilities. Ridgecroft has a small-school environment that encourages parental and faculty involvement in the development of the whole child, while actively pursuing excellence in academics to prepare students for college and life beyond school.

The campus is located in Hertford County, in northeastern North Carolina, between the towns of Ahoskie and Murfreesboro. Conveniently located one hour from Norfolk, VA, one hour from Greenville, NC, and less than one hour from the Albemarle Sound, Hertford County offers all the benefits of country living with easy access to cultural centers, universities, and beaches. The 83-acre campus has 22 classrooms, a science lab, a media center, a multipurpose gymnasium, a cafeteria, and administrative offices. In addition, there are playgrounds, athletic fields, and an outdoor classroom.

The Head of School is the chief operating officer of Ridgecroft School and has responsibility for its management and administration. He or she reports to the Board of Trustees. In addition to the general operation of the school, the Head is responsible for public relations, short- and long-term planning, financial business operations, financial aid, admissions, discipline, facilities, faculty, and communications.

Ridgecroft School seeks an energetic Head of School who will represent the school in the community with enthusiasm and integrity. Understanding budgeting and marketing is important, as is the ability to lead and inspire faculty and students. The most viable candidates will have strong academic credentials and demonstrated leadership experience in the areas of budgeting, advancement, and curriculum. Although previous experience as a head of school is welcome, it is not required.

Ridgecroft School is a nonsectarian, coeducational day school serving 250 students in prekindergarten through grade 12.
