Southern Teachers is assisting St. David's School as it seeks a dynamic educator to lead its Middle School division of over 200 students. The MS Division Head reports to the Headmaster and is an integral part of the school's leadership team with responsibility for driving administrative and academic leadership, spearheading student life, and ensuring discipline.

The MS Division Head purposefully integrates the school's mission ("faith, virtue, knowledge") into all MS activities, collaborates with various constituents to identify initiatives that drive excellence, markets and communicates MS programs and expectations, and leads the MS faculty in creating age-appropriate learning environments that are inspiring and have clear expectations. He or she systematically evaluates faculty, identifies professional development opportunities, and provides academic guidance by managing policies and means of assessment, maintaining academic records, and overseeing grading and reporting standards. The MS Head coordinates co-curricular opportunities, ensures the safety of faculty and students, and establishes guidelines and accountability measures for proper student conduct and citizenship.

The ideal candidate will be a model of servant-leadership while partnering with faculty, staff, and the headmaster to fulfill the school's mission. Preferred candidates will have at least five to ten years of teaching and administrative experience, ideally in an independent school environment.

St. David's is an independent school in the Episcopal school tradition that prepares young men and women for college and life by challenging them to excel in the vital areas of faith, virtue, and knowledge. Through a commitment to academic excellence, St. David's empowers students to take ownership of their learning and make a positive impact on their community. Members of the faculty are committed to the life of the mind and enjoy learning, together.
